Mr. Stephon Ferguson:

I have had the opportunity to view your public performances of the speeches of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., in Baltimore and the surrounding area. I have witnessed audience members cry, laugh, and say "Amen," at your rendition of the timeless and compelling words of Dr. King, which you have rendered in a respectful and timely manner. I had repeatedly heard those in attendance praising your performances by stating, "wow."

Thank you so much for working to keep the words and acts of this great man relevant and meaningful to generations.

With best regards,

Donald R. Huskey
